

I would like to respond to Petetion 04-208 regarding the "federal programs cost recovery fee" and the charge on my cell phone bill for the option of keeping my cell phone number. If I do not request this service, why should I have to pay for it? Couldn't this cost be passes on to those customers who want to use this service?